Village vote keeps Tory in his seat

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

VICTORIOUS Andrew Moulding (Conservative) credited the village votes for his success in holding on to the Axminster seat on Devon County Council.

Councillor Moulding, who is also Mayor of Axminster and deputy leader of East Devon District Council, retained his seat by amassing 1,800 votes, compared to runner-up Paul Hayward (Independent), also a town councillor, who polled 1,060 votes, beating the Liberal Democrats, traditionally strong in Axminster, into third place.

The Lib Dem's Rob Jordan, who also serves on the town council, finished third on 302 votes, with Labour's Jeremy Walden, Axminster's deputy mayor, achieving 219 votes.

Councillor Moulding said: "It has been an interesting campaign.

"In Axminster we saw a lot of people who were obviously interested in turning over the Conservative vote.

"But the villages rallied round and they were all firmly in support of a Conservative candidate."

There was less drama at Friday's count compared to when he took the seat four years ago.

Back then, losing candidate Douglas Hull

INDEPENDENT Paul Hayward who polled more than 1,000 votes to push the Lib Dems into third place in the election for Axminster's county council seat

IN THE BAG: Deputy returning officer Mark Williams has just declared that Andrew Moulding held the seat. Also in the photo is LibDem candidate Rob Jordan.

(Lib Dem) refused to shake councillor Moulding's hand, and councillor Moulding then shed a tear or two on the podium when overcome by emotion.

There were no such issues this time round.

Praise for opponent

Councillor Moulding was congratulated by LibDem's Rob Jordan and there was no wobble during his (Councillor Moulding's) speech.

He thanked everyone who had helped with the campaign, the people who voted for him and his family for the support given.

Councillor Moulding and Rob Jordan were the only two candidates to appear on the podium when the results were declared.

No tears at the election count this time!

HONITON

County and driver to blame for crash

THE COURT of Appeal has ruled that Devon County Council and a driver are equally to blame for an accident on a rural road between Honiton and Smeatharpe in November 2006.

A Land Rover hit an 8cm-deep pothole and one passenger left paralysed has been paid £3m with annual payments of £275,000 for care, while another suffered brain damage and received £1.2m.

The Court of Appeal ruled the council and the driver were equally to blame and should share the compensation bill.

The council will pay £500,000, with the remainder of the claim being settled by its insurers and the driver's insurance company.

The Court of Appeal agreed with a High Court judge's ruling that the council had breached its "absolute duty" under the Highways Act 1980 to adequately inspect and maintain the road.

But the judge also decided that the driver had been at fault.

Lord Justice Hughes said: "Although the error may have been one which many might make, it amounted to a significant failure to keep a proper lookout and to manage the car correctly."

The judge added: "In my view, the only proper finding was that there was contributory negligence to the extent of 50 per cent."

He explained that the road should have been inspected more often than twice a year, but rejected the High Court's ruling that this "betrayed a lack of reasonable care" by the council.

A Devon County Council spokesman said: "We have been shown to have exercised reasonable care in our general highway maintenance policy and this decision will be welcomed by all local authorities."

AXMINSTER

Radio for the blind

VISUALLY impaired patients at Axminster Hospital have the use of an adapted radio thanks to Axminster & District Lions Club and the British Wireless for the Blind Fund (BWBF).

The BWBF radio project is led by John Barrington-Rowell, who lost his sight in 2005.

Mr Barrington-Rowell, who is also a member of Seaton & District Lions Club, said he started the project after "spending a lot of time in hospital and realising the need to occupy his mind".

The adapted radios are custom-built with contrasting colour controls and raised braille markings.

The project has already seen Seaton & District Lions Club provide an adapted radio for the hospital there.

From the editor's chair It's as you were in Devon

NO great surprises in the county council elections in Devon with the Conservatives retaining control, albeit with three fewer seats.

The Tories managed to keep the UKIP challenge at bay, although the Eurosceptics did win three Devon seats, none of them in Pulman's Country.

All the serving Conservative councillors were returned to office in this area with another Independent, Claire Wright, winning the seat held for 20 years in Ottery St Mary by Roger Giles.

Unlike the 2009 election when there were slight spat when Lib Dem Douglas Hull lost his Axminster seat to his long-time Tory adversary Andrew Moulding, refusing to shake his hand, it was all sweetness and light at the Knowle count.

This time the Lib Dem candidate Rob Jordan was happy to shake Andrew's hand on the podium after the declaration of the result, despite being pushed into third place by Independent Paul Hayward.

Mr Hayward was not present at the count, which was a shame, for his was one of the star performances in the contest for East Devon seats. Whilst Councillor Moulding maintained a sizeable major, receiving 1,800 votes, Mr Hayward polled more than one thousand votes, which is an excellent total for an Independent candidate.

Mr Hayward is one of the newer members of Axminster Town Council, where he has succeeded in shaking up a few things, and Councillor Moulding, the current town mayor as well as deputy leader of East Devon District Council, admits that the Tories came under some pressure in Axminster town itself but it was the loyalty of the Conservative voters in the villages around the town that enabled him to retain his seat.

Councillor Moulding was also magnanimous enough to congratulate Mr Hayward afterwards on his performance and expressed the wish that he continues to work for the community. I am sure he will.

As I wrote in this column a couple of weeks ago, there is a general apathy towards politics at both national and local level (is it any wonder?) and this was evident in the low number of people who voted in East Devon.

The turn-out in Axminster was only 36.2 per cent; it was even lower in Seaton and Honiton, although Sidmouth achieved 37.5 per cent and Ottery St Mary topped the poll on 43.4%. That will have something to do with the Independents always doing well in Ottery, which should send some kind of message to the political parties.

Fashion event for the Legion

A FASHION show taking in several decades is to be staged in Axminster.

Named The Alternative Fashion Show and organised by the Women's Section of the Axminster branch of the Royal British Legion the event is being staged to raise money for the Legion's ongoing work.

One of the organisers, Lesley Frankau, said: "Fashion from the 1940s to the 1980s will be featured during the first half and contemporary clothes during the second part of the show."

"A make-over by Ricardo (aka Richard Hankey) for members of the audience, will also be featured during the event."

"Vintage and new clothes plus accessories will be on sale during and at the end of the evening."

"Do come along and enjoy a fun evening for ladies (and gentlemen) of all ages."

Raffle tickets will be on sale during the evening with many large prizes to include a food hamper, a box of assorted bottles of wine, basket of fruit and many other items.

Monies raised will be used for the British Legion's ongoing work at local and national level for the armed forces and their families, from past and present conflicts.

The fashion show will be staged in the Guildhall on Friday, May 10th.

SEATON

New town councillors

TONY Woodman and Steve Williams are the new faces on Seaton Town Council following the results of last week's by-election.

The results were announced at Sidmouth's Knowle Council Chamber, during the main count for the Devon County Council election.

With a turnout of 35.96 per cent, it was Seaton trader Tony Woodman who came top in the election, with 1,061 votes; Steve Williams, also elected, polled 888 votes.

The elected pair were followed by Sue Woodman, who came close behind in third place with 813 votes, and Robert Spalding with 641 votes.

Mr Woodman and Mr Williams will now join Seaton Town Council, taking up the two vacancies left by Jim Pigott and John Seward who resigned earlier this year.

COLYTON

Green wedge protests continue

RESIDENTS of Colyford have reiterated their objections to a development on the green wedge between the village and neighbouring Seaton, despite the plans being reduced in size.

Villagers first objected to plans for 172 houses, a light industrial area, two football pitches, pavilion, multi-use games area and new spine road in October last year. Following news that an amended plan had now been submitted, a public meeting was held at Colyford Memorial Hall on Friday evening, chaired by Mayor of Colyford Howard West.

Residents heard that the plans now included 170 houses but these were bigger in size than those originally proposed, and the light industrial area had been significantly reduced, allowing for more of the green wedge to be retained.

Mr West pointed out that the previous plans had included terraced housing, which he assumed would be affordable, but these had now "disappeared".

It was agreed that the Burgesses of Colyford would write another objection to the plans and residents were encouraged to submit their own objections.

Mr West said he would also try to organise a protest movement after Seaton Town Council had discussed the plans at a special meeting on May 8th.

OTTERY St MARY

Scout leader is Citizen of year

A DEDICATED scout leader from Ottery St Mary was awarded the town council's citizen of the year award at their recent annual town meeting.

Explorer and group scout leader for Ottery St Mary Scout Group, John Green, was handed the award last Tuesday after residents from the town and parish nominated and voted him as the most worthy winner.

A spokesperson for the town council said: "We were pleased to dedicate this award to John Green for his tireless work as explorer and group scout leader in Ottery St Mary. Not only does he put aside so much time for the youth of the town, but is also the driving force behind fundraising for a new scout building."

The plaque was handed over by Ottery St Mary Mayor, Councillor Glyn Dobson during the meeting.

On receiving his award, John Green said: "I was very surprised and honoured to receive the award."

"I did not have any idea that I had been nominated and so would like to thank my good friend for the nomination and all the very kind people who voted for me."

"I am delighted to lead the Ottery Scout Group, however, without the other volunteer leaders and supporters the group would not enjoy the success it does."

"We are all very privileged to have an opportunity to work with the more than 120 young people who make up the scout group."

"As a member of the Scout Group I have made some great friends and look forward to continuing with my volunteering."

"My personal goal is to see the completion of the improvements to the scout centre for which we have embarked upon an ambitious fundraising campaign."

The work of dedicated volunteer, Ann Anning was also celebrated at the Ottery Town Council annual meeting, when she was presented with a bouquet for her involvement with the NHS and groups such as the local help scheme

Skydivers raise £4,500 in memory of Lizzie

A DEBUTANT skydiver admits to have been boring people about her maiden jump, but says it was the best experience ever.

Sarah Farrant was part of a four strong-team skydiving in memory of a sister and friend.

Emily Croton, Josie Coath, and Jo Murdy were also jumping from the plane at 15,000ft above Dunkeswell.

As previously reported, their respective skydives were in memory of Sarah and Jo's sister, Lizzie, who died on September 8th last year after an accident.

The skydives took place on April 27th, Lizzie's birthday, to raise money for Devon Air Ambulance Trust, Cancer Research UK and the intensive care unit (RD&E) which tried to save her.

Strong winds threatened to postpone the adventure, though, as the girls arrived at the airfield in the morning but couldn't complete their mission until about 7.30pm. Throwing themselves off the plane, strapped to an instructor each, at ten-second intervals, all girls made a safe landing.

Having had a few days to gather her thoughts, Sarah said: "It was amazing, absolutely fantastic."

"I'm really boring people at the moment, but it was the best experience ever."

After jumping out of the plane, skydivers go into free-fall for about one minute, dropping about two miles.

The chute then opens and Sarah said: "You can hear the instructor from that point."

"He points out the landmarks and it's the best view ever and very peaceful."

She estimates that they have so far raised a total of £4,500, and added: "A massive thank you to everyone who donated."

Justine Hutchings is also part of the team, but was unable to jump because of a back injury.

It is understood she hopes to complete the challenge at a later date.

Fast Freddie brings back tube recording

A SEATON music star is taking the music scene by storm with a song inspired by the London Underground.

Freddie Horton - better known as 'Fast Freddie' - has produced the 'Mind the Gap' track together with Ivor Novello award winning songwriter, Ronnie Harwood, and Honiton based producer and engineer, Mark Tucker.

The song was inspired by the heart-warming story of Oswald Laurence, who was the iconic voice of the 'mind the gap' announcement on the London Underground for many years.

After he died, his widow, Dr Margaret McCollum, used to visit the Embankment Station just to hear the announcement; but sadly one day, to her dismay, her late husband's voice was replaced.

After writing to London Transport asking for them to bring back her beloved Oswald's voice, Margaret was overjoyed to hear that his voice had returned and as the upcoming song says: 'He's back, he's coming back.'

Freddie contacted Margaret and sent her a copy of the new song, and she loved it.

Excited about the release of the track, Freddie said: "The incredible story of Margaret and Oswald has been extensively covered in all sorts of media and it truly is an honour to have produced the song in dedication to the pair.

"It's incredible that London Transport has re-instated Oswald's voice at Embankment Station, and it has been wonderful to meet with Margaret who is an absolutely charming lady.

"There has been a lot of local input, with Ronnie Harwood and the production of the single at Marl Tucker's studio in Honiton and we have tried to make it a real catchy pop song.

"I hope the response to it is positive and that many will enjoy the song and be part of that wonderful story that inspires the track - it would be great for it to go viral - but who knows.

"The video was fun too, featuring the iconic voice of Oswald Laurence, and a brilliant newspaper created just for the track, thanks to the help of Seaton's Steve's Print and Design."

You can download the track on iTunes, Band Camp and all other music provider sites, as well as being available to watch on YouTube.

MIND THE GAP IS COMING BACK | The 'Mind the Gap' announcement recorded by Margaret McCollum's late husband, Oswald Laurence, has been revived in a track produced by Seaton music star 'Fast Freddie'

WHAT A DEAL | Scott Gray and Graham Barton with Fran Carnell

Homes Under The Hammer duo raise £1,000 for air ambulances

AUCTIONEER Graham Barton played a leading role in an event raising a total of £1,000 to be split between two air ambulance trusts.

Mr Barton, who lives near Colyton, teamed up with fellow auctioneer Scott Gray to host an evening reception on behalf of Clive Emson Auctioneers.

Graham and Scott are famed for wearing their stripey jackets on BBC's 'Homes Under The Hammer' programme, so what better way to entertain the assembled crowd than to hold an impromptu auction.

One particular lot caused the greatest interest as Graham announced that the final prize of the evening, much to Scott's bemusement, was for two hours of both Scott's and Graham's time - to undertake domestic or gardening chores.

The initial silence was soon followed by much giggling and amusement as the bidding started at a lowly £10.

Before long, however, the winning bid came in at £100. The total funds raised amounted to £1,000, to split between Devon and Cornwall air ambulance trusts.

Devon Air Ambulance Trust fundraising team leader Fran Carnell said: "Everyone obviously had such fun.

"Scott and Graham adding the bonus lot of donating their time proved a very successful idea.

"It's great that our two air ambulance trusts will benefit from the proceeds of the auction and we thank everyone involved for their support."

The damage was done at some point between 6.15pm and 7.45pm on Thursday, May 2nd.

Children's Society coffee morning

A COFFEE morning will be held in The Church Rooms, Axminster, to raise money for a forthcoming flower festival.

The coffee morning will take place on Thursday, May 23rd from 8.30am-12noon, to feature stalls, a raffle and refreshments.

The date for the parish church flower festival is September 19th-21st.

Tai Chi Day at the Arts Cafe

Allan Howlings led celebrations of World Tai Chi and Chi Kung Day in Axminster.

Mr Howlings runs ABC Tai Chi and invited members of the public to join him outside Axminster Arts Café on Saturday, April 27th.

Tai chi can be described as a mixture of disciplines with roots in martial arts.

It can help with concentration, balance, stress, physical problems and pain control.

Mr Howlings said: "We had a very successful event and gradually picked up more people as they came into the café."

"We also went over to the green next to the church to practise the moving part of tai chi because there were too many people for the small area at the arts café."

Marking day a success

AXMINSTER police officers were pleased with the turnout for a property marking session.

A police team travelled to Hawchurch on Saturday, April 6th for a crime prevention roadshow.

Members of the public had been encouraged to bring along items they wanted marked with a postcode or other marking to make their goods less attractive to thieves.

The marking service was free of charge and it was also possible to make appointments for marking of larger items.

PCSO Andy Trott said that about 40 people turned up and about 20 items were marked.

Around 15 alarm-equipped padlocks were also sold at cost price during the event.

The locks are triggered by tampering and go off at 110 decibel, making a loud noise.

Summing up the event, PCSO Trott said: "It was very successful."

Anyone who couldn't attend, can call the force switchboard on 101 and ask for Axminster Police Station to make a marking appointment.

■ FINE-TUNING: John Barrington-Rowell, Rob Mitchell (BWBF), Janet McKay (matron) and Jamie Love (Axminster and District Lions Club) test the new radio

Lions to provide special radio for the blind

VISUALLY impaired patients at Axminster Hospital have the use of an adapted radio thanks to Axminster & District Lions Club and the British Wireless for the Blind Fund (BWBF).

The BWBF radio project is led by John Barrington-Rowell, who lost his sight in 2005.

Mr Barrington-Rowell, who is also a member of Seaton & District

Lions Club, said he started the project after "spending a lot of time in hospital and realising the need to occupy his mind".

According to BWBF, hospital bedside entertainment systems often rely on the patient being able to see and select options from a flat touch screen.

But the adapted radios are custom-built with contrasting colour controls and raised braille markings.

The project has already seen Seaton & District Lions Club provide an adapted radio for the hospital there.

The hospitals in Honiton and Ottery have adapted radios on trials, which was also the case at Axminster before the trial turned into a permanent arrangement on Friday, April 19th.

Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. One of the organisers, Lesley Frankau, said: "Fashion from the 1940s to the 1980s will be featured during the first half and contemporary clothes during the second part of the show.

"A make-over by Ricardo (aka Richard Hankey) for members of the audience, will also be featured during the event.

"Vintage and new clothes plus accessories will be on sale during and at the end of the evening.

"Do come along and enjoy a fun evening for ladies (and gentlemen) of all ages."

Refreshments will be provided during the interval with home made cakes.

Raffle tickets will also be on sale during the evening with many large prizes to include a food hamper, a box of assorted bottles of wine, basket of fruit and many other items.

Monies raised will be used for the British Legion's ongoing work at local and national level for the armed forces and their families, from past and present conflicts.

The fashion show will be staged in the guildhall on Friday, May 10th.

Doors will open at 6.15pm and the fashion show will start at 7 pm. Advance tickets (£5) are available from Archway Bookshop (01297 33744).

LOCAL residents arrived through driving rain to enjoy Millway Community Day, organised by East Devon District Council's community development team.

About 25 children took part in an Easter Egg hunt, crafts and games. They learnt how to make healthy and colourful sandwiches from Health and Local Food for Families members - and tai chi exercise demonstrations were given by Allan Howlings.

One of the organisers, Victoria Robinson, said: "Fun was had by all members of the community, which was a joy to see.

"We were pleased with the overall level of support." The event was held on Saturday April 13th.

News briefs Windows smashed

TWO windows in a conservatory were smashed when hit by stones.

The act of vandalism took place at a home in The Cricketers, Axminster, at some point between 4.30pm and 5.20pm on Sunday, April 28th.

The stones were thrown over a back fence and police would like to hear from anyone who witnessed something suspicious in the area at the time.

Anyone with information is asked to call 101 and ask for Axminster police.

The crime reference is KA/13/222.

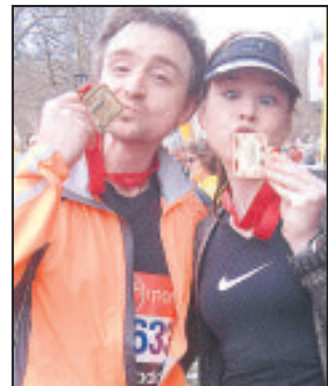

Fire station plan approved

PLANS to extend Axminster Fire Station have been approved by East Devon District Council.

Apart from improved and extended facilities for the town's firefighters, the decision also clears the way for police officers to relocate.

As previously reported, the planning application included space to be used by local police officers, who will move from their current station up the road in Lyme Close.

The fire station, which has seen very little change since built in 1963, will also see the addition of a two-storey extension, a new training tower and a detached garage.

LAURA Bailey won the bragging rights after narrowly beating her husband, Henley, in this year's Virgin London Marathon.

The Axminster couple really enjoyed the experience and Laura crossed the finishing line after 4 hours 52 minutes 59 seconds while Henley registered a time of 4 hours 53 minutes 9 seconds, raising £1,461.22 for Leukaemia CARE.

Early bird catches the dawn chorus

EARLY risers can't fail to notice that it's that time of year again – birds are looking for mates, or defending their breeding territory, and the dawn chorus is at its best.

Also, with the promise of David Attenborough's launch of "Tweet for the Day" on Radio 4 in May, and International Dawn Chorus Day on Sunday, May 5th, bird song is definitely flavour of the month.

At the Axe Estuary Wetlands on May 11th, people are being invited to embrace birdsong, with a dawn chorus walk from 5am until 7am. The event will be led by Steve Waite, County Recorder for Devon Birds, who will help you learn and identify individual birds from their calls with his expert help.

Mr Waite said: "On the Axe Wetlands everyone's favourites (Robins, Blackbirds, Song Thrush) are joined by species such as Reed and Sedge Warblers, Reed Buntings, and various different water fowl.

"Dawn is a wonderful time of day to appreciate this spectacular and atmospheric site. You will be amazed not only by the depth of beautiful bird song, on the Wetlands, but also by its complexity."

To take part in the event, call the Countryside Team on (01395) 517557.

The Dawn Chorus Walk will be followed by a public bird ringing display by the Axe Estuary Ringing Group.

Beer Blazer returns

THE annual Beer Blazer multi-terrain race will be taking place on Sunday, May 12th at 10.30am.

The main 10k race is run over mainly private land covering fields, tracks, challenging beach and Beer Undercliffs, cliff tops and open common. The minimum age for this race is 17years. There is also a shorter 5k option for 11-years and over and for 11 years and under a one mile race.

For full details or to get an entry form visit www.beer-ce-primary.devon.sch.uk.

Hospital celebrates 25th anniversary

SEATON Community Hospital will be celebrating its 25th anniversary this Friday (May 10th) with a "Healthy Communities Day".

To mark the occasion, the hospital is opening its doors to the public for the event, which will run from 10am until 2pm and will feature a range of activities including stands and displays showcasing local NHS services, voluntary groups and private care providers.

Matron for Seaton Hospital, Emma Bagwell, said: "The public can learn more about the wide range of health services on offer in the Seaton area, while the event will also present an excellent networking opportunity for the staff and organisations involved.

"We are thrilled by the response we've had and it is shaping up to be a very exciting day for Seaton Community Hospital."

Trust specialists, including physiotherapists and speech and language therapists, will be on hand while nurses will carry out free blood pressure checks and other simple observations. The League of Friends will have a stand and have kindly agreed to provide refreshments and other assistance.

They will be joined by members of the Lions Club, Rotary Club, Royal British Legion, St John Ambulance and Age UK as well as private care companies including Home Instead, Courtesy Care, Bluebird Care and Axe Valley Care.

The RNIB will be promoting its Talking Books service, Devon and Cornwall Police will be offering advice on home safety, the Devon Freewheelers will be parading some of their emergency blood courier motorbikes and there will be stands dedicated to healthy eating and NHS recruitment. At 1pm there will be a presentation to the Seaton Home Nursing Team, which was recently named the winner of the Healthcare Hero awards run by the Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust.

The public will also have the opportunity to sign up as a member of the trust, which would give them a greater say in the running of health services in East Devon.

Building work on the hospital, in Valley View, started in 1987 and was opened by the Duchess of Kent on May 10th 1988.

■ MEMBERS of the Seaton and District Lions Club have had a successful few weeks of fundraising following a table-top sale and a collection.

The group's fundraising table-top sale at Seaton Town Hall during mid April raised £150 for their charitable services.

Lions members also held a collection at Seaton Co-op store on Friday of last week raising a further £119.

Members of the club (pictured right at the table-top sale) would like to thank the general public for their generous help and on-going support.

Quiz team winnings help send Pippa to Botswana

A TEENAGER from Beer has benefitted from being part of the Dolphin Hotel's quiz team, when she was handed £100 from the Seaton Rotary Club.

The youngest member of the team, 14-year-old Pippa Groves was chosen as the main recipient of the prize winnings from the Dawlish Water Rotary Pub Quiz, which will contribute towards fundraising for a trip to Botswana, South Africa next year.

The annual Rotary Pub Quiz organised by the Dawlish Water Rotary club gives teams from across Great Britain and beyond the opportunity to compete in the competition, with 58 pubs and clubs taking part this year.

The annual event raises around £3,000 a year for various charities, with a small amount of the proceeds going to the winning teams.

Every year, members of the Seaton Rotary Club hand over a £50 cheque and a special trophy to their area winner at the end of the competition, and this year was no exception.

The ceremony took place at The Dolphin Hotel, who won the trophy for the eighth year in a row, with members of the quiz team and Rotary Club gathering for the celebrations.

Adding to their £50 donation, the Rotary Club decided to make their donation up to £100 this year, to support Pippa Groves and her fundraising for the 2014 Devon

Axe Air Explorer scout, Pippa said: "I am so happy to have been chosen to receive the donation from the Rotary and I am really pleased that, not only my team won the prize, but that the money can be used towards funding the worthwhile trip."

The cheques and trophy were handed over by members of the Seaton Rotary Club including Jean Smith, quiz-master and International chairman for the Rotary Club who said: "On behalf of the Seaton Rotary Club I would like to say how pleased we are to support Pippa Groves and her trip to Botswana next year."

"At Seaton Rotary Club we like to support international and national projects, and this is the perfect example of supporting something on a local level which will in turn, support people internationally."

Crime in Colyton

A TOTAL of five crimes were reported in Colyton and Colyford in April.

This compares to four crimes the previous month and four crimes in April 2012.

The incidents in April included an offence under the Communications in which a number of unsolicited messages were sent from an unknown number to a mobile phone causing distress.

PC Stephen Speariett reported there had been three offences under the Communications Act throughout the whole Seaton Rural policing area in April, which was "quite unusual".

Other incidents in Colyton included a burglary in which tack equipment was stolen from a shed in Colyton Hill; a second burglary in which a quantity of pig feed for stolen from a farm off the A3052; a theft from a car in which a tax disc was stolen while someone was washing the car in Vicarage Street.

Speaking on the whole of the Seaton Rural area, PC Speariett said: "April has seen an increase in crime compared to the previous month and the same period last year, however the total remains below the long term average."

If you have any information on any of the crimes contact Seaton Police Station on 101, email seaton@devonandcornwall.pnn.police.uk or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Colyton Link meeting

COLYTON Link will hold its annual general meeting on Wednesday, May 15th.

The meeting, which will include the election of officers and committee members, will start at 7.30pm in Colyton Town Hall, followed by entertainment, refreshments and a raffle.

All welcome.

School hosts annual garden fair

THE Parents and Teachers Association of Colyton Grammar School held their annual Garden Fair on Saturday.

Last year the event had to be cancelled due to poor weather but this year the sun shone brightly, allowing for a huge number of stalls to be set up around the school site.

Alongside the many plant stalls were local crafts, cakes, raffles and tombolas. There was also children's activities, a barbecue and the "Flowerpot Cafe" in the school canteen, with many Colyton Grammar students helping to run stalls.

Sun shines for Bluebell Day

AFTER one of the coldest early springs on record, organisers of the annual Bluebell Day in Colyford were unsure whether the usual vivid bed of flowers would be on show for the occasion on Saturday.

However, the past week of sunshine helped a last-minute growth spurt, and many visitors turned out for walks in Holyford Woods.

The event was based at Horriford Farm thanks to hosts Colin and Val Pady.

Stalls were set up in the garden and guests enjoyed music by Swing of the Axe, while in the woods, the Eco-Explorers outdoor pre-school group were cooking nettle soup.

Pulman's View

churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE Revd Linda Chester, Methodist Minister, writes: Are there any uneaten Easter Eggs in your home? "Easter Eggs?" you ask. "Easter was six weeks ago."

But, for the church, the season of Easter lasts 50 days until Pentecost. Easter is not just one Sunday in the year, but the momentous Resurrection event we commemorate on that day, offers us a new way of life.

We are Easter People – everyday of the year. Resurrection changed lives; the promise that death is not the end. The disciples took this message everywhere they went, focusing on the living presence of Jesus Christ.

This was faith from personal experience, which carried them through all situations. This same faith in the living presence of Christ carries us today, whatever we have to face.

Uplyme Church recently celebrated the completion of the reordering of their building which involved new flooring and seating, and visual equipment.

The churches at Uplyme and Axmouth have now celebrated this with the licensing by the Bishop of Crediton of their new curate, The Revd Shuna George – welcome Shuna.

St Andrew's Church Colyton was recently the venue for a Scout Service numbering into hundreds.

Records show the last such event was over 15 years ago. Let's hope we don't wait that long for the next such service!

Dates for us all – Axminster United Reformed Church has a spring sale on Thursday, May 9th from 9:30am-noon.

Christian Aid Week will be with us again from May 12th -18th. There will be special services in East Devon churches – look for local notices. Telephone 553582 or 553440 with enquiries.

The Royal School of Church Music invites choristers to sing Evensong in Exeter Cathedral on Saturday, May 11th – rehearsal from 2pm - 4pm – details 01884 860501.

Looking ahead: Musbury Church is offering a concert on Friday, May 17th at 7:30pm with the Croft Original Choir and local talent. Tickets are £7.50 and include cheese and wine. Tickets are available from 552440.

Southleigh Church is holding a thanksgiving service for the completion of vital restoration work on Sunday, May 26th at 3pm attended by the Archdeacon of Exeter, the Venerable Christopher Fitcher – all are welcome.

The Church of England's new report on marriage has been universally condemned so it is reported. The new document 'Men and Women in Marriage' appears to allow gay couples having prayers similar to the marriage service, despite opposition to same-sex marriage.

Some local churches have need for help over laundering of their vestments and similar items. Fosseyway Park, Seaton, is now the home of a laundry – enquire 20661.

JULIE Weber lives in Seaton with her three youngest children, Jack, Rosie and Aaron, her partner Simon and her two dogs Tiggy and George. A mum of four, Julie's eldest daughter, Lauren, now attends Chichester University where she studies Performing Arts.

After more than 20 years of experience, working with young people and children, Julie recently left her role as manager at Puffins Pre-school in Beer and has gone solo, as a local child-minder.

● HOW did you get into childcare and what made you interested in getting involved?

At the start of my career, I worked with teenagers with behavioural problems with a group in Hawkchurch and found it very rewarding helping young people in need. I then fell into a university degree in Early Years, as I felt that I wanted to help children learn and progress before they reached a stage where they were unhappy teens or had major underlying issues in their lives.

● WHY did you decide to be a child-minder?

I recently undertook my Early Years Professional Status and during my time studying, I worked in a baby unit called Saplings at Bicton College. Since I have become more and more interested in working with younger children and babies so I decided to set up my own child-minding service offering a child led hands on learning approach. There is more and more research showing the importance of learning for under twos and so I wanted to help and bring my expertise.

● WHAT experience can you bring to the role?

I have a degree from Plymouth University in Early Years, and also my Early years Teaching status. I also have a Level Three Leadership qualification in Forest Schools that promotes a child led, adult guided approach with a focus on outdoor education. It is all about learning and so we do lots of activities to boost self-esteem, aid learning and confidence. I have around 20 years of experience all in all of working professionally with children and I am also a mum of four, so I am well trained in dealing with all kinds of situations. I am also a registered Ofsted child-minder and have close links with other children's care providers in the area, including the local children's centre.

● WHAT activities and learning experiences can you bring to children in your care?

Especially with the forest schools leadership, I focus on outdoor activities from shelter building, to bug hunts, treasure hunts and even cooking and fire lighting for older children. I focus on aspects such as health and safety, as well as all the other fun stuff, like free play, fun and games and arts and crafts. My main ethos is that it's how children do what they do, rather than what they produce. So far activities have included: natural activities like vegetable and flower planting, a trip to the garden centre, walks to Seaton Marshes and musical monkeys at the scout hut.

● WHAT do you enjoy most about your job?

Watching children learn, develop and progress is very rewarding. It is all about giving children a chance to experience things that are new and it is exciting how the simplest of things can make them come alive. It's lovely to provide high quality care and education from the comfort of my own home and feel that I am making a difference.

● ALONGSIDE your work with children, what other activities do you enjoy?

In the past year I have been going to the gym and really enjoy fitness activities. I also enjoy spending time with my family and walks on Seaton beach and in the woodlands with my children whilst walking the dogs.

● IF £500,000 could be spent on the local area, what would you like to see improved?

It would be nice to have a high quality gym and also a big family centre, which offers things for all age groups. I would have said a youth club, but I feel that Seaton's Voice are doing some incredible work at the Gateway and really transforming things for the youth of the town. I would also like to see the seafront improved so it is a real family holiday destination.

● Julie currently has vacancies available for all year round and operates from 7am – 6pm, taking on children from three months upwards. She can pick up and drop off children, and can take children to all local pre-schools and schools in the area. Julie can also provide her services during holidays, where activities can be adapted to suit a range of age groups. For more information, contact Julie at Little Jewels Childminding by emailing joolsplus4@hotmail.co.uk or call 07773 397530

Little seeds flourish at inaugural music concert

MUSICSEEDS, the new music group for children aged six months to 10 years, has celebrated its first six months of tuition in the Axe Valley with a rousing concert at Kilminster Village Hall.

Edward Jacobs, a local musician and teacher, opened the concert by playing 'The Entertainer' on the piano and emphasised to the audience the importance of learning music when you are young.

Thirty children took to the stage in their various groups, with the babies and toddlers up first.

They demonstrated how they sing and move to music. Five young pianists also played solos, ranging from a beginner's piece to a Grade One piece.

The Musicseeds club, for children aged four to six, performed songs and showed how they are adept at reading rhythms.

The concert ended with all the children present playing percussion instruments along to another rousing piano performance by Edward Jacobs, and the adults couldn't help but join in by clapping and tapping their feet!

Leah Stonex, the founder and teacher of Musicseeds, was thrilled that the concert raised £280 for Jasmine Summer Elliot's Brighter Future Fund at Great Ormond Street Hospital.

She said "I am so proud that the children performed with confidence, and that the audience clearly appreciated the work so far at Musicseeds."

"The purpose of the classes is to learn the basics of music in a fun way, through singing and games."

Babies and toddlers meet every Friday morning at the Guildhall in Axminster from 10am.

Children who are in Reception, Year One and Year Two can enjoy an after school club on Fridays, at the Kilminster Cricket Pavilion.

If you would like to find out more, or are interested in taking your little one along for a free introductory session, why not visit the website at www.musicseeds.co.uk

Coping with Bereavement

GRIEF is quite common and is the normal internal feeling one experiences in reaction to a loss, while bereavement is the state of having experienced that loss.

The potential negative effects of a grief reaction can be significant and are often aggravated by grief triggers, events that remind the bereaved individual of their loved one, or the circumstances surrounding their loss.

The risk factors for experiencing more serious symptoms of grief for a longer period of time are related to the survivor's own physical and emotional health before the loss, the relationship between the bereaved and their family member or other loved one, as well as related to the nature of the death.

Bereaved individuals who feel the death of their loved one is unexpected may be at greater risk for suffering from major depression, post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), or prolonged grief.

The seven emotional stages of grief are shock or disbelief, denial, bargaining, guilt, anger, depression, and acceptance/hope.

Symptoms of grief can be emotional, physical, social, or religious in nature.

To assess grief, a health caregiver usually asks questions to assess what symptoms the individual is suffering from, then considers whether he or she is suffering from normal grief, prolonged grief, or some other issue.

Coping tips for grieving include the bereaved individual's caring for his or herself through continuing nutritious and regular eating habits, getting extra rest, and communicating with surviving loved ones.

Consulting with solicitors or other legal experts is advisable when either planning for or managing the legal matters associated with a death.

Some of the major legal issues involved with dying include the person's right to have informed consent to receive or refuse treatment, advance directives and making funeral arrangements.

Cantenians welcome new member

At a recent dinner at the Lordleaze Hotel in Chard, Axminster Catenians were pleased to welcome Dr Richard Godfrey MD, FRCP, ARCO(TCR) as a new member.

Richard and his wife Jane recently moved to Lyme Regis where he teaches the organ at Lyme Regis Organ School.

After the dinner, Cafod Diocesan Manager Simon Giarchi gave a presentation on their work, and in particular highlighted the success of the Give Water appeal which was the Catenians' international charity during their centenary year, raising a quarter of a million pounds.

Catenians are Catholic men who meet regularly for social activities – often with their families. They are part of an international organisation with over 10,500 members.

Members of Axminster Catenians are drawn from East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset.

ers need to gauge interest as soon as possible.

Lady Taverners enjoy spring lunch

The East Devon Region of the Lady Taverners, part of the Lord's Taverners charity for children with special needs, held their spring lunch at the Harbour Inn in Axmouth in April.

The Harbour Inn has recently undergone a major refurbishment, so the day was a joint celebration.

Guests from all over the Devon and Cornwall came to the lunch, as well as supporters from Axminster Cricket Club, whose young cricketers have benefited from the work of the charity. This year, gentlemen were invited to join the members

A pre-lunch reception was held in the Captain's Room for over 40 Lady Taverners and guests, and tickets for the tombola were in great demand while everyone enjoyed their bucks fizz.

A Lady Taverners event would not be complete without the traditional raffle and Wendy Hayden received wine donated by the Harbour Inn from Kristy Valentine, who organised and oversaw all the arrangements for the day, together with head chef, Gary Brookes.

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SIDFORD WI celebrated its 94th birthday with food, wine and song this month.

The evening began with Deidre Dee in character as Marie Lloyd, taking members through her career in the Victorian Music Hall. Wearing a selection of fancy hats and feather boas, she led the group in singing Marie's famous songs, including "The Boy I Love", "Oh, Mr Porter" and "A Little of What You Fancy".

Maureen Cook thanked her for a very entertaining act, which members all enjoyed.

Members then enjoyed a buffet spread catered by Carol Marchant and her team of helpers, who produced a wide selection of savouries and desserts, washed down with a glass of wine.

The centerpiece was a intricately decorated birthday cake made by Pat Street, cut by the club's oldest member, Gwyneth Hansford, and there was plenty to go around the 80 plus members who attended.

This month's competition for a spring posy was won by Rosemary Hurst, 2nd Marianne Rixon and 3rd Christine Bull.

President Marion Baker was sorry to announce the death of Joyce Wilmington, a well-loved member of many years, and of Ruth Wilson who had devoted a great deal of her time to Sidford WI in the past and became the member for Rural Affairs in the Devon Federation of WIs. Members held a moment's silence in their memory before the party began.

The next meeting will be the annual general meeting on May 8th.

COLYFORD

COLYFORD WI members enjoyed a lively discussion of the resolution for the annual general meeting, to be held at the Albert Hall before the reports and election of the president and committee for the coming year.

President Margaret Nicholson thanked her committee, specifically the three committee members who are standing down, and also all those who have helped Colyford WI have such a successful year.

Details were provided for forthcoming trips to Sherborne, and the group meeting at Axmouth.

The Flower of the Month was won by Margaret Nicholson.

Meetings are held at Colyford Memorial Hall and the next meeting will be on June 5th at 2.30pm.

All visitors are welcome.

Green wedge objectors may have to submit concerns again

■ UNBELIEVABLY, the 200 people and organisations who have objected to the proposed development east of Harepath Road, Seaton, may need to do so again.

Objectors will have received a letter from EDDC this week stating that an altered planning application has been received. No doubt after further extensive consultation with EDDC! But, the revisions change nothing.

The plans still reduce the green wedge to a green smudge, wildlife on the site will still be adversely affected and it will still have a damaging impact on the natural look of Axe Valley nature.

And, of course, the revised plan does nothing to change the fact this development is not in the Local Plan.

Elected councillors will hopefully realise that there is no point in doing extensive consultation with the public if the outcomes are then simply overridden.

There are other areas of Seaton, in the Local Plan, still waiting for development of affordable and other homes. The land east of Harepath Road should be left as it is.

JOHN McLELLAN,
Colyford

Why the secrecy around All Saints teacher?

■ SOME years ago the number of pupils at All Saints Primary School fell to single figure.

Mrs Hollidge, then the new headteacher, worked hard and within a few years the school had become one of the best in the area, with numbers well above average.

It is very sad to hear she is leaving. But why is she leaving? Why all the secrecy? What ever happened to transparency?

MARGARET NEWBURY,

Charities well supported in East Devon

■ I FULLY agree with the comments you made in your paper on April 30th.

I have been involved with a number of charities over the years and have seen the generosity of local people. As the secretary of Axminster and District Friends on Hospiscare, it never ceases to amaze me how generous people can be. We are extremely grateful for all the support we receive.

People that have had personal experience of Hospiscare will know what wonderful work they do. Some are so touched by the support they have received from Hospiscare Nurses go on to raise lots of money, we recently received £3,500 from Les Bounds and Friends. There are so many supporters that we would like to thank but to name everyone would be very difficult. Just a big thanks to all of you.

There are also a lot of organisations around this area that work extremely hard to make life better. I consider myself extremely lucky to live in the East Devon area for the beauty of the scenery and the kindness of the people. After living here over 40 years I am pleased to call myself a local.

Lib Dems will continue to fight for Axminster

■ A CERTAIN lady once said: "Society, there is no such thing."

When the people of Axminster voted for the sale of the Old Magistrates Court site last week they agreed that we did not need health facilities, education facilities and civil protection on this excellent site in the centre of the community.

We now have to look for second best sites.

But to those who voted for a forward looking Axminster I give my pledge that I will not desert them and I will continue to fight, as my health allows me.

I will continue my fight for our historic town where we should have the ability to find work for everyone. I remember the dark days of the 1970s.

COUNCILLOR DOUGLAS HULL,

'Will do my best for Seaton Coastal'

■ MAY I, through your paper, thank all the people who supported me in the local county council elections?

I will do my best to address the issues that all residents of Seaton Coastal may bring me as their county councillor no matter what political arena they come from.

I would also like to give special thanks to the army of friends who gave me so much help during the lead up to the election.

JIM KNIGHT,
Devon County Councillor

Thank you for handing in lost wallet

■ I LOST my wallet in Ottery St Mary town centre on May 2nd and within a couple of hours someone had handed it in to the police office in the town and they had phoned me.

I would like to thank the person who found it and handed it in. Whoever you are, you saved me a lot of trouble.

Budleigh Salterton Male Voice Choir to appear at Seaton Town Hall

THE Budleigh Salterton Male Voice Choir is delighted to be singing for Seaton and District Lions Club on Saturday, May 11th 2013 at 7.30pm in Seaton Town Hall. Their special guest for the evening is Dorothy Ferrier. This is her debut appearance with the choir, where she will be singing solo and also duetting with the Choir's very own John Brindley from the Baritone Section.

Based in the seaside town of Budleigh Salterton in East Devon, the Choir was founded in 1974, under the musical direction of Pamela Jones, now the Choir's Life President. The current director Peter Good is the choir's fourth musical director, having replaced Allen Coles who retired in January 2012 after 15 years' service to the choir. Allen now sings in the first tenor section, and a very welcome addition he makes as well.

In 2012 Budleigh Salterton Male Voice Choir had an amazingly successful year raising in excess of £13000 for local and national charities through their concerts. All monies raised from concert ticket sales are kept by the charity concerned as the Choir makes no charge whatsoever for its appearances.

During last year the Choir sang in Dartmouth and Taunton, as well as locally in East Devon towns for such diverse charities as the Rotary Club, the Newcomen Society and Go Commando. Singing some old favourites coupled with several new songs learnt and performed during the year, including March and Entrance of Peers from Gilbert and Sullivan's Iolanthe, the Fields of Athenry (music donated to them by the widow of one of their most popular men making it a particularly poignant piece to sing), The Hippopotamus Song by Flanders and Swan which unusually features the Bass section singing the tune, and several others which have gained their place in the repertoire.

All details about the choir can be found on their website www.budleighmvc.co.uk

Tickets cost £7 each and are available from The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall Box Office on 01297 625699 or from David on 01404 41378 or on the door.

Music for Monarchs

TO CELEBRATE the diamond jubilee of the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II, Seaton Choral Society will present Music for Monarchs, its spring choral and orchestral concert, on Sunday, May 12th at 4.00pm at Seaton Town Hall.

The programme reflects the festive nature of this anniversary with Mozart's Coronation Mass, along with Handel's mighty coronation anthem Zadok the Priest - the ultimate vehicle for expressing public acclamation for the accession of a monarch. In contrast, but perhaps revealing a more genuine love for a royal person, will be the intimate, grief-stricken music which Purcell wrote for the funeral of the much-loved Queen Mary II in 1695 - music which was performed at his own funeral a few months later.

A further bow to royalty in the form of the biblical King Solomon is a setting of words from The Song of Solomon by the society's musical director, Peter Milmer. His music admirably reflects the words: "The winter is past and the time of the singing of birds is come" - words which will hopefully ring true by 12th May!

The anthem Zadok the Priest, composed for the coronation of King George II in 1727, displays Handel's unmatched genius for creating a mood - stirring up patriotic ardour through the means of a relatively short piece. His lovely aria "Laschia ch'io pianga" from Rinaldo will be sung by Christine Marsden, who will also sing the soprano part in the main work of the concert, Mozart's Coronation Mass. This was written around 1779, and was probably sung for the coronation of the Emperor Leopold II, some 12 years later. It is energetic and beautiful, in spite of a request by Mozart's patron at the time that he produce something simple and solemn!

The vocal line-up will also include the tenor Leslie Baker, bass Tony Yates, and members of the society.

Honiton artist's work on display at Fairwater Head Hotel

THE Fairwater Head Hotel in Hawkchurch is currently exhibiting the works of Honiton artist Marion Sawl.

The paintings on display are inspired by the people, places and animals of the South West of England.

Adam Southwell, proprietor of the Fairwater Head said: "Marion is showing a selection of her work including portraits, paintings of animals and of the local countryside.

"Her work clearly gives off a 'sense of place'.

It teaches you to see things in a different way and to understand the subtleties of colour and how it works."

The exhibition runs throughout May 2013 and is open seven days a week.

There is no charge for viewing and everyone is welcome.

ART FOR CHARITY| East Devon artist, Vivienne Adams is pictured with organiser of the charity exhibition, Ursula Pratt MBE

Charity exhibition held in Station Gallery

EAST Devon's artists have benefitted from a special exhibition held in the Station Gallery at Pecorama.

The display which ran throughout last week, played host to hundreds of paintings, pottery and ceramic pieces, featuring the work of a range of artists from across East Devon.

Aiming to raise money for the Devon Air Ambulance, the event was organised by local artist, Ursula Pratt MBE, who is well known for her art and her dedication to charity exhibitions in the local community.

Mrs Pratt has been running the East Devon artists for charity group since 1992, and over the years has raised more than £170,000 for charitable causes. She was recently awarded an MBE by the Prince of Wales at Buckingham Palace, for her outstanding work raising money for charity through art.

Those whose work was featured in the exhibition included: Barry Mason, Helen Workman, Michael Stride, John Hoar, Michael Beach, Bob Bradshaw, Rosemarie Bentley, Roy Lang, Christina Ulanda and Peter Lund.

Mrs Pratt told the Pulman's View: "I am very pleased with the exhibition this week, as the Station Gallery is a beautiful hall, and very impressive.

"The pictures are so easy to see and look so lovely in the location and we are very lucky to have been offered a place here at Pecorama to host our charity exhibition.

"I particularly love the spectacular gardens, and when it has been quiet I have had the opportunity to do some painting whilst I have been up here.

"Thank you to all who have supported us."

◆ A similar exhibition featuring work from the East Devon artists for charity will be held at Kennaway House in Sidmouth from May 25th to June 2nd. All proceeds will also support the Devon Air Ambulance.

Best of Tony Hancock takes to the stage in Sidmouth

Tony Hancock was the epitome of self delusion in his Hancock's Half Hour radio and television series. Eternally convinced that he was smarter than everyone else he would repeatedly suffer mishap after mishap to hilarious effect. Who can forget The Blood Donor, The Radio Ham and a Sunday Afternoon at Home?

Over fifty years since they were first performed, award-winning actor Iain Barton, with a full cast, recreates the best loved scenes and sketches from Tony Hancock's career in an unmissable show that proves that some comedy is simply timeless. The Best of Tony Hancock is at Manor Pavilion Theatre, Sidmouth this Friday, May 10th from 7.30pm. Ticket cost £13 from the box office on 01395 514413.

Teatro Kismet present Philip Pullman's I Was A Rat!

NOTTINGHAM Playhouse Theatre Company in association with Birmingham Repertory Theatre Company, New Wolsey Theatre, Ipswich and Teatro Kismet present Philip Pullman's 'I Was A Rat' at Exeter's Northcott Theatre.

nary boy, though a little ratty in his habits?

Why Mazda's growth plan makes it a partner of choice

- Open points give opportunities for new businesses
- Strong retail sales is major attraction for dealers
- New product offensive attracts buyers

The right dealers with the right facilities and in the right place, but always with a pragmatic approach is how Mazda UK Managing Director Jeremy Thomson describes the company's approach to its dealer network.

While the last three or four years have been particularly tough for the industry, Thomson is optimistic that the company and its partners have turned a corner. He is also full of praise for "the tenacity and durability of the network" which is now reporting that profitability is on the rise as demand increases for the company's new generation of products.

Cutting the number of sales outlets from 157 to 135 was essential to ensure long-term profitability of the network by increasing the number of sales through each showroom, he said. Conversely, because owners don't want to travel further to get their cars serviced or repaired, the number of authorised repairers has been increased from 18 to 32, explained Brett Hague, Mazda UK's Franchise and Network Development Manager who is keen to attract new partners to the brand to fill open points in the network.

There are a number of open points remaining, and at least four new sales locations will open later this year. "There are a few opportunities for entrepreneurial and customer focused dealers to represent Mazda, and interest in the brand is really strong," said Hague. He points out that Mazda remains a very attractive proposition for businesses looking to take on a new franchise since 70 percent of sales are in the booming retail sector "and we don't have any need to force registrations which has been a problem throughout the industry."

In the recent Auto Express Driver Power Survey, the largest and most comprehensive poll of car owners in the UK, the Mazda brand jumped from number 12 last year to 4th place. The climb is testament to Mazda's sixth generation cars, with the Mazda CX-5 achieving pole position in the SUV class. Scores were especially impressive for 'practicality' and 'ease of driving' categories.

The Mazda CX-5 is proving to be a remarkable success story – Mazda UK can't get enough of them because of strong global demand. Mazda sold 3,100 in FY2012 and with increased supply Mazda is planning for more than 6,000 in this financial year.

Meanwhile, Mazda continues to go from strength to strength, adding awards to its trophy cabinet with its sixth generation models. Mazda6 recently won the Fleet News 'Best Upper Medium' category title, while experts from the CarBuyer website selected the all-new Mazda6 Saloon as their 'Best Large Family Car' and Mazda6 Tourer as 'Best Estate Car' because of its good looks, fun driving experience and impressive levels of standard equipment. The Mazda CX-5 trophy cabinet includes What Car? magazine's 'Green SUV' and 'Best Buy SUV' awards, Total 4x4 magazine's Green Award and Scottish Car of the Year's safety award.

Mazda UK say Director Peter Allibon adds: "We see a bright future for the Mazda brand."

That confidence comes from successful launches of both Mazda CX-5 crossover and all-new Mazda6 as well as a full pipeline of new products all benefiting from award-winning SKY-ACTIV technology to give Mazda a sustainable platform for future growth.

"The Mazda6 launch was phenomenal and I'm very confident about the car's performance and look," said Allibon. "The press reaction and the awards it has already won speak for themselves. Our plan of 7,500 Mazda6 sales in the 2013 financial year is now looking a conservative number and we can go beyond that as natural demand builds."

The new Volkswagen Golf Bluemotion: more driving, less fill-ups

FROM Friday, UK customers can order one of the world's most fuel-efficient family cars: the new Golf BlueMotion. This car offers fuel economy of 88.3 mpg on the combined cycle, and CO2 emissions of just 85 g/km, yet like its predecessors it still offers customer all the Golf's traditional attributes of practicality, comfort and safety.

The new Golf BlueMotion's fuel economy is 15 per cent better than that of the previous-generation model, which emitted 99 g/km (now the emissions of a standard Golf 1.6-litre TDI). The original Golf BlueMotion, revealed at the Geneva Motor Show in 2007, returned, at that time, a class-leading 62.8 mpg with emissions of 119 g/km – figures now surpassed by even the range-topping diesel, the 184 PS Golf GTD.

With its 50-litre fuel tank and 88.3 mpg fuel consumption, the new Golf BlueMotion has a theoretical range of 970 miles. Assuming an average annual driving distance of under 10,000 miles, most drivers will only have to refuel 10 times a year. Road tax won't be an issue, either – the Golf BlueMotion is in Band A, meaning it's zero pounds a year.

The reduction in the car's combined fuel consumption has been achieved through lightweight design (including 26 kg less weight in the running gear and 37 kg less in the body), engine-related modifications and a collection of other measures. These include super low rolling resistance tyres with higher air pressure, longer gear ratios (six-speed manual gearbox), the Stop/Start and battery regeneration systems that are standard in all new Golfs, plus specific aerodynamic modifications.

The frontal area of the new Golf was reduced by 0.03 m2 and aerodynamic drag (Cd x A) by nearly 10 percent, giving it a Cd value of 0.27. Compared to other standard Golf models, the aerodynamics of the BlueMotion were also refined by a lowered ride height (by 15 mm), a roof spoiler, lateral air guide elements on the rear window, a masked front grille, partially closed air inlet screens, optimised cooling system airflow, special underfloor panels, optimised brake cooling channels and a C-pillar spoiler.

At the heart of the new Golf BlueMotion is a 1.6-litre 110 PS common rail TDI from the new EA288 engine series (producing 5 PS more power than in non-BlueMotion models). The four-cylinder 16-valve unit develops its maximum torque of 250 Nm from just 1,500 rpm up to 3,000 rpm.

Various measures such as reduced internal friction, an innovative thermal management system with shortened warm-up phase, exhaust gas recirculation, cylinder pressure sensor, two-stage oil pump, switchable electric water pump and water-cooled intercooler right in the intake manifold result in successfully reducing fuel consumption and emissions. To reduce emissions values further, Volkswagen has also implemented an oxidation catalytic converter, a diesel particulate filter and a NOx storage catalytic converter.

Prices for the new Golf BlueMotion start at £20,335 (RRP OTR) for the three-door and rise to £20,990 for the five-door, with specification based on that of the standard Golf S – see price list for full details. UK Volkswagen Retailers are taking orders for the new Golf BlueMotion now, with the first deliveries expected in August.

Car thieves favour Mercedes-Benz

TRACKER 2012 recovery figures reveal most sought after Mercedes models

LAST year over £2million worth of Mercedes-Benz were recovered by TRACKER, the stolen vehicle recovery (SVR) expert, making it a favourite make with car thieves. In the UK a car gets stolen every five minutes, with half of them never being seen again*. In total over £12.5 million worth of cars were recovered by TRACKER in 2012.

Mercedes is a very desirable make and is favoured with the rich and famous. Only recently Made in Chelsea celebrity Millie Mackintosh opted to purchase a SLK-Class Coupé, joining her fiancé Professor Green who already owns a SLS-Class. With the SLK coming out as the top favorite model for thieves to steal and an on the road price tag of around £30k, fitting a TRACKER will give car owners the ultimate in peace of mind should the worse happen.

Stuart Chapman, Police Relationships Manager for TRACKER explains, "The theft of vehicles has become much more sophisticated and in some instances brutal, as criminals find more ways to steal desirable, high-end cars. Installing a TRACKER significantly increases the chances of a stolen vehicle being recovered and returned to its owner. Over 90% of cars fitted with a TRACKER device are successfully located and returned to owners, usually within 24 hours.

TRACKER is the ONLY stolen vehicle recovery system operated by all Police Forces across the UK. The SVR systems work like an electronic homing device. A covert transmitter is hidden in one of several dozen places around the vehicle. There is no visible aerial, so the thief won't even know it's there. Unlike other car tracking solutions, the device works even if the vehicle is hidden in a garage or shipping container.

Can you scriptwrite? then Car & Driving wants to talk to you

CAR & Driving, the UK's most influential motoring media agency, this week announced the beginning of its search for a new freelance scriptwriter for its industry-leading road test videos.

The company already holds the largest library of road test videos in the world, with a regular audience estimated at over 10 million across UK and world websites. Numbering over 700 HD iPhone/iPad-compatible films, it covers virtually every car, van and pick-up available on the UK market, each featuring a unique sectioned player so that viewers can go direct to the part of the film they want to find out about. This enables the films to be far more detailed – an example's on the public site at www.caranddriving.com.

"Viewers can get three or four minutes on specifically what they're interested in, rather than three or four minutes of generality covering largely what they already know," says Car & Driving's Editor-in-Chief Jonathan Crouch.

Jonathan has presented and scripted virtually all of the films in the library to date but demand going forward is so great that another writer is needed. The library is in use throughout most key UK dealer groups and publishers and Car & Driving has moved to a new base in Horsham, West Sussex where filming studios and locations can all be in one place.

"There's a big difference between writing features and writing scripts", says Jonathan, "as anyone who's ever tried to do it will know. We're looking for someone who can do that – and can do so while bringing to bear the extensive industry knowledge that'll be required to create the detail that marks out our films."

Applications need to be made direct to jonathan.crouch@caranddriving.com

Crucial 48 hours for title chasing Feniton

REPORTS

SIDMOUTH TOWN RES 2 ELMORE 0

Division Four

SIDMOUTH Town Reserves bounced back from Saturday's disappointment to stun league champions Elmore 2-0.

In an end-to-end first-half it was the hosts that created the better chances with the outstanding Kieran Small going closest.

When Elmore did look threatening the Vikings defence held firm and looked solid as the half ended 0-0.

The pattern of play continued to swing one way then another until Doug Still opened the scoring with a fantastic finish. The game then became pretty one-sided and Sidmouth extended their lead when Small refused to give up a lost cause and got the killer second.

Elmore then pushed forward more but still the hosts were looking solid, gaps were appearing in the visitors back line and Sidmouth could easily have added a couple more but it stayed 2-0 and the Vikings had a thoroughly deserved three points.

Manager Nick Ogden was delighted and proud of his side's efforts, he said: "It was massive win for us in our fight to beat the drop. Every player played their part - from front to back, we wanted it more than them and it showed."

"Kieran and Huw (Johnson) in mid-field put in unbelievable shifts and that inspired the rest to step-up."

"But it's only the first step of four in our quest, so we must keep our feet on the ground and concentrate on the job at hand."

"Our task remains the same, get enough points to be safe and then we can look back and enjoy this."

"The reason we all love the game is the contrast from the lows of the previous week at Chagford to the highs of this game. We worked hard and got our reward."

ROUND-UP

A weary HATHERLEIGH TOWN ensured the Fresha Devon & Exeter League Premier division title would go into another week after they despatched reigning champions ST MARTINS 2-0.

Anything less than a win would have meant Feniton could have won the title with victory at Budleigh Salterton yesterday (Monday), but now Fenny may also need to beat the University on tomorrow to win the championship and deny their North Devon rivals.

Danny Jenkins and Luke Reynolds scored for Hatherleigh who are at least guaranteed second place, which would be their highest ever finish.

MORCHARD BISHOP chasing fourth place were held 2-2 at SEATON TOWN whose Mark Hancock scored both goals but the star of the show was Morchard keeper Mike Searle.

TOPSHAM TOWN won a tough game at the UNIVERSITY 2-1, James Fanson and Rian Antat scoring, THORVERTON ended their season with a stunning 6-1 rout of BEER ALBION, and WILLAND ROVERS 4-4 draw with NEWTOWN probably means survival.

BOW AAC are the new Division One leaders but their 0-0 draw against HEAVITREE SOCIAL UNITED was their worst performance for some time.

Third place TIVERTON TOWN made sure of promotion by hammering EAST BUDLEIGH 5-0 and have the title now in their sights. Jesse Howe with a hat-trick, Darryl Kewley and Jake Searle scored for the yellows who were still on a high following their Firewatch Devon Senior cup glory on Thursday night.

WELLINGTON TOWN beat COLYTON 3-2 and will finish fifth unless Heavitree win their last game. Colyton look destined for the drop along with CULM UNITED who went down 1-0 at home to CULLOMPTON RANGERS who although in the bottom three may yet escape relegation.

BICKLEIGH ensured promotion from Division Two after their 3-1 success against HONITON TOWN who are now out of the race, and they are joined by BEACON KNIGHTS who won a thriller against COLATON RALEIGH 4-3.

PINHOE came from behind to beat HALWILL 3-2, Vinny Conibere scoring twice.

Bottom of the table CHAGFORD picked up a priceless 2-2 draw at TOPSHAM TOWN and still survive, but rivals CLYST VALLEY beat WESTEXE ROVERS 2-0 and neither side is yet safe. Clyst could overtake Civil Service, who plan to change their name next season to Exwick Villa, if they avoid defeat in their last match at Sidmouth.

DOLPHIN walloped WINKLEIGH 7-1 and now need just one win from their last three matches to be Division Three champions. Danny Hall was the only Dolphin striker to score twice.

Second place CREDITON won 4-0 against NORTH TAWTON, which keeps them just in front of neighbours NEWTON ST CYRES 1-0 winners at OTTERTON ST MARY.

CHERITON FITZPAINE just bettered BOW AAC 2-1 and now need to win their final game tomorrow against Uplowman by at least two more goals than Division Five leaders Culm United manage against Countess Wear on Wednesday.

AWLISCOMBE have put themselves in with a great shout for promotion after their 4-0 win against SAMPFORD PEVERELL. Topsham currently in third place finished their season with a 3-1 win against UPLOWMAN, Mitch Ward, Ryan Saunders and an own goal earning the points. Uplowman will now finish last.

FENITON won the top of the table clash in Division Six at AMORY PARK RANGERS 3-2, Gary Groves, Jonathan French and Danny Lewis scoring and will be champions if they win their last match on Monday against MORCHARD BISHOP who were 4-0 winners at PRIORY. Dean Tickner, Matt Madelin, Mike Lander and an own goal did the job for Morchard.

Leaders FLUXTON won their last match in Division Seven 9-0 against the OPEN SPACE INTERNATIONAL but that may not be enough to deny HALWILL the title after their 2-1 win at OTTERTON.

NEWTON ST CYRES 4-1 win against COLATON RALEIGH means they finish third and are promoted.

The Division Eight title is still up in the air after leaders ALPHINGTON were held 2-2 by OFFWELL, and at least half a dozen teams still have a chance of promotion.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

A ROSS Chatwood goal was a consolation as Farway United were thrashed 6-1 at Ilminster Reserves last Wednesday.

running round-up

Tough day for Garry

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

SEVEN AVR's ran, walked and (in one case) staggered along Saturday's Salcombe Coastal Marathon.

The route along the coast path from Torcross to Bantham was extended by three miles due to two cliff fall diversions so with the addition of a stiff headwind all day, it was a little tougher than usual.

The event is so low-key that runners time themselves and are allowed to stop their watches for the ferry crossing at Salcombe and for visits to the pub/chippy!

Fastest runner was Tim Lenton who stuck close to the normal route by rockhopping along the beach around the diversions.

Alex Todd and Matt Clist had been running with Garry Perratt who crashed and burned for the second time in two weeks but left him flaked out on a track about three miles from the end, finishing in 5:08.

Eleanor Wood, Jon Day and Robin Carter ran together on and off with Eleanor and Robin pulling away towards the end and finishing about ten minutes before Jon.

After resting awhile, Garry pushed on from his collapse point and with another couple of five-minute flakeouts finally reaching the finish some time later.

Geoff Woodward and Steve Reynolds took part in the North Dorset Village Marathon on Sunday.

They ran together until near the finish when the Geoff sprinted off beating his buddy by just two seconds. They finished in 3hrs 51mins a 22 minute course PB for Reynolds.

Both agreed that it was a nice warm up for the upcoming 5 in 5 Forces March starting on May 22nd.

Sue Venn also ran, but her build up to the event was not the best ever. She went down with a cold, so training went out of the window, then had a nasty fall on the road whilst out walking the dog, so has been stiff and aching all week.

Sue gamely made it to the start line and was really delighted to beat the five hour barrier, finishing in 4:59:20.

FENITON with Roger Smith

FENITON'S over 60s men's triples teams got off to a fine start to their season.

The A team collected six points in a convincing win over North Tawton A by 49-29, just failing to collect all eight points by losing by just two shots on the second rink.

The winning rink was; D Sanders, R North & R Arundell 30-8. The B Team also enjoyed an excellent start by picking up all eight points in defeating Bradninch A by 36-28.

The winning rinks were; G Phillips, L Ley & Ro Clarke 18-13 and M Evans, D Conbeer & D Evans 18-15.

The mixed team narrowly defeated Chardstock by 76-74. The winning rinks; were G Blackmore, J Rolph, L Ley & A Kury 26-13 and J Evans, J Wheatley, G North & D Evans 25-21.

In their match away against local rivals Honiton they lost by 73-83.

The winning rinks were; S Goodenough, T Young, A Coyne & R Smith 15-11 and G Smith, E Goodenough, A Smith & A Evans 19-18.

At the weekend in another away fixture at South Molton the mixed team had a comfortable win by 109-76.

The winning rinks were; A Hughes, J Skinner & A Kury 24-3, G Smith, J Livings & R Cooke 24-11 and F Brooks, J Rolph & S Kury 17-11.

AXMINSTER with David Harris

THE men started their outdoor season well in the Exeter & District Over 60's League with an excellent 47-22 win at home to Starcross BC with both rinks winning well - David Harris, John Hill & Bob Sherborne (24-10) and Mike Preston, Sid Milburn, & Howard Keep (23-12).

The Ladies found it difficult in their first game of the season on grass at Lyme Regis and were soundly beaten 28-72 with no winning rinks.

On Saturday we had our Annual Ladies v Gents match with the fairer sex coming out on top 65-64. The game was played in ideal conditions with an excellent turnout of 28 members.

A special word of thanks to Betty Hudson and Phil Bolwell who provided our tea and biscuits as indeed they do for most of our games.

NB: I did not include the Ladies Pairs Final result in my indoor Ssea-son report last week which was actually won by Ann Clayton & Phil White with a walkover against Chris Todd & Margaret Crompton who were unavailable - my apologies.

SEATON with Linda Stone

THE first week of the outdoor season went well for Seaton with a victory in the first friendly match against Tiverton Borough on Tuesday.

The top triple was; Gill Sykes, David Ford & Angie Mayhew winning 24-6.

On Wednesday the ladies played Heavitree in the over 50s triples league winning both triples and gaining all the points.

Thursday was an away game against Ilminster. The weather was good but unfortunately the run of play went with the hosts who won 107-93.

Seaton's top triple was Sylvie Warrick, Terry Hurley-Smith & Les Tooze.

Chardstock ladies came to Seaton on Friday and Seaton managed a win while on Saturday following a very successful open morning (see below) Seaton were beaten 111-105 in a six-rink game against Westlecot tourists.

Seaton's top rink was; Roy Stokes, Ray Thompson, Lin Allison & Malcolm Carvell.

Derby win for Seaton - Hurford hits double ton for Axminster

MATCH REPORT

Seaton 1st XI v Uplyme & Lyme Regis
SEATON 1st XI started the 2013 campaign at home to newly promoted Uplyme without leading run scorer for the last two years Mark Bray.

Seaton Captain Ben Morgan won the toss at a sunny Court Lane and asked the visitors to bat.

Opning bowlers Phil Collins and Ben Libby started very well bowling with accuracy and aggression which left Uplyme struggling at 40-3.

Joe Berry and Alex Hunt took a wicket apiece to leave Uplyme tottering at 50-5. James Dunford and Rod Holmes hung around for a while without scoring many runs until Dunford was run out with a direct hit from Mike Wheeler.

Wheeler and Collins then took wickets consistently and Uplyme were all out for 114 with Wheeler and Collins both taking three wickets. Mark Brimicombe top-scored with 22.

Seaton's reply began well with Ed Hunt and Steve Pritchard looking comfortable until Hunt was caught by Steve Batey cover off Neil Price who also snapped-up Chris Aplin shortly after leaving Seaton 43-2.

Captain Morgan joined Pritchard at the crease and the pair saw the game home with Morgan finishing on a quick-fire 57 and Pritchard ending on 20 which sees the hosts take the full 20 points.

Morgan said: "I am very happy with the way we played as a group today. The team spirit was excellent and it is nice to start the season with a win.

"We travel to Honiton next weekend which will be a harder test but we do welcome back Mark Bray."

Honiton 1st XI vs Ashburton 1st XI

HONITON captain Kevin Kelly lost the toss and the visitors were asked to have a bat at Ashburton.

The openers Pete Matravers and Richard Potter made a steady start until Potter perished with the score on 12, This brought Kelly to the crease and he and Matravers added 64 before Kelly fell for 25.

Matravers went on to a top score with 77 as Honiton finished on a more than useful 178 all out.

The home openers raced to 68 when Kevin Nicholls had to retire injured when turning his ankle. This opened up and end for the visitors and wickets started to fall. Kelly finished with 2-21 as Honiton had the home side struggling at 101 for 6 with just 14 overs left to play.

But the runs began to flow once again for the home side as opener Nicholls, having returned to the crease, saw his side home with an impressive 65no.

Honiton 2nd XI v Kingsbridge

THE visitors won the toss and elected to bat and racked up 213-7 with Honiton skipper Tom Strawbridge claiming 2-46 and Corey Lapping 3-35.

In reply Honiton lost Strawbridge for a top-score 34 at 65-4 and had to be content with two batting points as they were dismissed for 126.

Blake rewrites the record book

RECORD crowds at Wiscombe Park saw Ed Hollier start his 2013 season at Wiscombe Park in the best possible way with two victories last weekend.

The 2007 British Leaders Champion set the pace from the first practice run on Saturday morning taking his Suzuki Hayabusa powered Pllbeam MP62 to victory in both the Channon and the Mark Salter Memorial Trophy meetings, defeating more powerful cars along the way.

Another driver to perform a double during the season opener was Weymouth's Geoff Blake but it was not without a mishap. Problems with the clutch pedal on his first competitive climb of the Saturday meeting saw Blake take to the escape road at the Martini Hairpin.

With the problem rectified it now required a composed yet quick run for to regain the initiative over his father Graham. The response was not just a class winning time of 40.99 but a new Association of South West Motor Clubs record.

The following day the former Wiscombe Park Young Driver Champion continued to have mixed fortunes in the two litre Westfield. A failed run and no time in the morning practice sessions was replicated in the competition itself during the afternoon.

This called for a similar performance as the previous day. One last opportunity to take a double win and again Geoff delivered by not only moving ahead of Graham to win the Modified Specialist Production Car class but also to improve on the record he set just 24 hours before leaving it at 40.58 seconds. The performance won him the Best Woolbridge award.

Reigning Bridge Tyres & Wheels Wiscombe Champion Craig Moore faced stiff opposition in the over 1600 c.c. Rally Car class in the form of the Darrian T90 of Wimborne driver Tim Porter.

The Lyme Regis pilot asked a lot of his Mk 2 Ford Cortina has he fought to stay in touch with the well driven sports car and for that matter a great deal of himself as he nudged the bank at Wis Corner during the Sunday meeting.

The speed of the Darrian was too much and Craig finished in the runner-up position on both days ahead of Rob Wadsworth's Lancia 037 Stradale.

■ REIGNING Wiscombe champion Craig Moore three wheels his Ford Cortina through The Esses as he chases down the opposition.

Moore's determined attitude has seen him gain third place in the domestic Wiscombe championship as he attempts to become the first driver to win the series for a third time.

The next weekend of motorsport at Wiscombe Park is on May 11th/12th. The Saturday event sees the 500 Owners Club's annual meeting which revolves around vehicles which utilise motorcycle engines for power so there will be classes for motorcycles and cars both three and four wheeled.

The following day sees one of the flagship meetings of the season at the East Devon venue with the Vintage Sports Car Club providing the spectacle with a wide range of vintage machine with both road and track origins.

A number of these cars will be making the most of the weekend at Wiscombe Park and will be taking part in the previous day's event.
